Community Fund Priorities

Salina Area United Way funds programs and services provided by our Partner Agencies that address our community's greatest needs, determined by a broad spectrum of citizens who serve on our United Priority Councils.

Preparing for Life

In our community, people work together so children and youth succeed. From guidance on healthy choices, to structured out-of school time, to mentoring relationships, we help youth grow into strong adults.

Agencies: The Salvation Army, Salina Family YMCA, Martin Luther King Jr. Child Development Center, Salina Child Care Association, Girl Scouts, Big Brothers Big Sisters of Salina, Child Advocacy & Parenting Services, Coronado Area Council, Boy Scouts of America

Rebuilding Lives

Even strong families can have a crisis. When we extend a hand to help those affected by disasters, domestic violence or economic hard times, they get the help they need to live healthy, functional lives.

Agencies: Veridian Behavioral Health, Catholic Charities, Central Kansas Foundation, American Red Cross, Kansas Legal Services, Domestic Violence Association of Central Kansas (DVACK), Child Advocacy & Parenting Services

Providing Basic Needs

Whether it be food and shelter, health care and prescriptions, or mental and physical support, we invest in programs and services that preserve economic stability and quality of life for the whole community.

Agencies: American Red Cross, The Salvation Army, Salina Family Healthcare, Ashby House

Building Self Reliance

Access to information and services helps everyone to become self-sufficient. From family support to volunteering, transportation to housing, United Way partners to help each member of the community toward maximum independence and full participation in life.

Agencies: United Cerebral Palsy, American Red Cross, Catholic Charities, The Volunteer Connection
